

About the Author

Dr. Vagubai Thimmappa, hailing from Maddelabanda in Jogulamba Gadwal District, Telangana, embodies a journey shaped by resilience, grassroots experience, and scholarly excellence. Born into a humble joint family, his early life was marked by determination, walking several kilometres daily to pursue his education. Excelling in academics and extracurriculars from a young age, he became a school and college topper, with a flair for public speaking, writing, and student leadership. A passionate advocate for social justice, Dr. Vagubai Thimmappa played a vital role in the Telangana statehood movement. As Vice President of the Osmania University Students' Joint Action Committee (OUJAC), he participated a historic 25-day padayatra from OU to KU, energizing student participation in regional reforms. He holds a Ph.D. in Law from Osmania University, focusing on post-independence land reforms in Telangana. His academic credentials also include an LL.M in Labour Law and an integrated LL.B from the same university. His expertise spans constitutional law, land reforms, legal research, and student advocacy. Currently an author, scholar, and activist, Dr. Vagubai Thimmappa work is grounded in lived realities and committed to promoting equity through education, law, and civic engagement. He continues to inspire through his academic rigor, activism, and unwavering pursuit of justice
